Bishop McHugh Student Wins Patriot's Pen Award

Cape May Court House -- (January 29, 2015) – Justin Klemick, an 8th grader at Bishop McHugh Regional Catholic School, placed first in the Patriot's Pen Essay competition held by the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW). The essay contest encourages young minds to examine America's history, along with their own experiences in modern American society, by drafting a 300- to 400-word essay, expressing their views based on a patriotic theme. Justin will now advance to the regional level of competition, which could ultimately lead him to the national title. Pictured (L to R) at the award presentation are Principal Tom McGuire, Justin Klemick, VFW Post 1963 Vice Commander Mike Rodgers, and Justin's mother, Kate Klemick.

Bishop McHugh Regional School is a PreK-8 regional school in Cape May County with a student-centered curriculum grounded in the Gospel values.
