

Bishop McHugh thanks Novasak family

Bishop McHugh Regional Catholic School recognized Walter and Alma Novasack, of South Seaville, on Wednesday, Nov. 25, as a major benefactor for the school. The Novasack family contributed to the school when it first opened in 2000 and their monetary donation continues to help families with tuition assistance. Pictured presenting a plaque to Walter Novasack are Sr. Rosemary Powers (left) and Principal Barbara Byrne.
